

PB2. BITING THE HAND

"Hail the King in the North! With Robert dead, and wise old Eddard joining us at the Trident, we shall once again rule in the north! While Lord Eddard assures us that it will not come to war should we put down Tywin's host abruptly, the birds say another king has staked his claim! Now is the time to return rule to the north. Let northmen rule themselves again like the days of old. Ah! The warhorns sound! Our foes approach. Let us ride for Lord Eddard! For Prince Robb! For the King in the North!"

Marlon Umber, bannerman to House Stark

You will need two Battles of Westeros Core Sets to play this scenario.

Stark has momentum.

VICTORY
