

Magic

The gangs have learned to use magic. But be careful! Magic may be a powerful ally, but it is also very dangerous for the unskilled apprentice...

THE GRIMOIRES

Grimoires are new Equipment cards for Cadwallon: City of Thieves. They allow their owners to cast spells.

A character who owns a Grimoire is called a “mage.”

Each gang may only own one Grimoire. Each Grimoire includes 4 spells.

CASTING A SPELL

Casting a spell costs 1 Action Point, but does not count as taking an action.

When a player activates his mage, he may attempt to cast 1 spell:

1. The mage declares which spell on his Grimoire he will attempt to cast
2. If the spell has requirements, the mage must fulfill all of them.
3. The mage spends 1 Action Point and rolls 1 die: If the result is equal to or higher than the spell’s “Threshold,” the mage manages to cast the spell and the effect takes place immediately (as described on the “Table of Spells”). If the result is lower than the Threshold, the mage has failed to cast the spell, and receives 1 Curse token on his Grimoire.

A mage must take 1 Curse token each time he fails to cast a spell! (Use any counter at your discretion.)

THE CURSE

The number of Curse tokens collected on a Grimoire determines the amount of debt that gang must pay at the end of the game.

If a Grimoire is never used, or if the mage successfully casts all of his spells, the gang will not have to pay anything to the Innkeeper for the Grimoire. On the other hand, each time a mage fails to cast a spell, the debt for the Grimoire increases by 1 ducat!

Guild of Thieves Rule of Magic

“Don’t push your luck.”

A mage can only attempt to cast one spell per round.

“Conserve your forces.”
